ABRAHAM LINCOLN
NATIONAL HERITAGE AREA

ILLINOIS—WHERE THE LINCOLN LEGACY COMES TO LIFE.

Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area Cancellation Stamps Now Available

Do you collect souvenirs from the places you visit? If so, consider purchasing a National Park Service Passport Book. Each time you visit one of over 30 sites in the 42-county Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area, you can obtain a free, site-specific cancellation stamp for your Passport Book. Collect all the National Heritage Area stamps by exploring the places in Illinois where Abraham Lincoln lived, worked and traveled.

This brochure lists the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area sites that provide the free cancellation stamps. Call each site ahead of time to confirm site hours.

This Abraham National Heritage Area was designated by Congress to preserve and tell the story of Abraham Lincoln's life. The National Heritage Area staff works in partnership with the National Park Service on this passport book program and many other programs. For more information about the National Heritage Area visit their website at <http://www.lookingforlincoln.com/>
